

Chris Fichtner, CIC, CRM

Branch Manager

Chris joined Insurance Partners in 2011, specifically to manage the company's Lorain County Branch Office. In his role, Chris will help grow the branch's business and build the company brand in this market.

He has worked in the insurance industry since 1999, most recently as Vice President and Producer at Somers Agency, Inc. from 1999 until 2011. He has helped a wide range of clients in both the private and public sectors, everything from schools, contractors, and manufacturers to the healthcare industry and professionals.

In explaining his approach to helping customers, Chris says, "I'm a very analytical person, which is essential in really analyzing and discovering my clients' greatest areas of need, and finding a solution for them. As a Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC) and Certified Risk Manager (CRM), I bring extensive training on insurance and risk management to my clients."

Chris has been or is currently a member of a number of industry organizations including the Independent Insurance Agents & Brokers of America (IIABA) and IIABA of Ohio, and the Young Agents Committee.

In civic organizations, he is a member and serves on the Board of The Rotary Club of Elyria, and has been involved with the Lorain County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Chris graduated from Ashland University, in Ashland, Ohio, with a double major in Mathematics and Business Administration. He has two children, Lukas and Meaghan. He also coaches his son's basketball team.

"I consult with our clients to fully understand their business issues, challenges and risks. Then I make recommendations on how best to manage them. I look forward to helping our clients with their many needs."
